FORTHCOMING NWEMF WORKSHOPS

(booking details at <https://nwemf.org/nwemf-workshops/>)

Owing to COVID-19 all remaining 2020 workshops are postponed for now and where possible will largely form a spring programme for 2021. This applies to those with tutors Marion Scott (recorders), Roger Wilkes, Stephanie Muncey-Dyer, Peter Syrus and Philip Thorby.

NB. Workshops on 19th September with Philip Thorby and 17th October with Stephanie Muncey-Dyer are POSTPONED.

There remains one presently scheduled workshop:

6th February 2021

Tutor: Andrew Griffiths

From the Editor

Please see the membership item (page 3) regarding recompense for lack of workshops this year.

The 2020 AGM is postponed indefinitely. The 2021 AGM is “pencilled in” for 17th April 2021 during a workshop.

Officers have all agreed to continue in their current roles including Roger Wilkes as Acting Chair. The Chair and Secretary roles need filling at the next AGM.

NWEMF exists for education in the study, practice and appreciation of music and allied arts, especially of the medieval, renaissance and baroque periods. For example: sponsoring or promoting concerts, recitals, broadcasts, recordings, seminars, lectures, classes, courses etc.; disseminating information relating to early music to members and others; printing, publishing or distributing books, pamphlets, leaflets relating thereto. [This is a paraphrase of the opening section of the

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

- a. New members:- none since April.
- b. Resignations :- none since April.
- c. We currently have 128 members, 2 of whom are Life Members.
- d. If you have not noted the password for the Members area of the web-site, just e-mail me.
- e. By the way, when renewing your membership you do not have to fill in a form, just make the payment clearly associated with your name.
- f. If any of the 33% of members who do not currently pay by standing order would like to complete a standing order mandate, which would make the administration so much easier (avoiding the need for (possibly repeated) e-mail & telephone reminders), just ask for a form (preferably by e-mail). The next easiest method of making payments is to remit by BACS to NWEMF's bank account using Sort code 09-01-56 & Account number 79658106, with your name as the reference. This method can be used for workshop fees as well as membership dues. The aim is to minimise the use of cheques & postage.
- g. Recompensing you for the recent lack of workshops :- if we manage to restart our workshop programme this autumn we shall allow every member one free workshop from amongst them. If we have to wait until Spring to restart we shall allow every 2020 member 2 free workshops.

Keeping (mostly) music alive in the meantime

The April Newsletter had Ten Top Tips to keep your voice going during a pandemic! (Deborah Catterall) and some Web sites that you might like to visit. Here are some more Web sites.

i Fagiolini's Sing The Score. Robert Hollingworth and his group i Fagiolini have made 'sing along' videos under the title Sing The Score on YouTube. Each video features i Fagiolini performing a track, with the score appearing at the same time, so that you can sing along with the recording. You can play the track as often as you like. It's free. Each track has comments from Robert Hollingworth, as he would have commented during a live workshop. The videos can be accessed via the following link: <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLsdmpGkkaBICmyiEyHtUjBAEIJbb4bVXp> . i Fagiolini ask that anyone using the Free resource agrees to subscribe to the series (via a red SUBSCRIBE button lower right). This simply ensures that you get advice automatically when a new video is made available. Robert is filming one video a week in this series, and will continue as long as people watch them. You can catch up with the whole series to date via www.ifagiolini.com/singthescore .

If anyone wants to contribute to the cost of making these videos, that would be very welcome of course but there is no obligation. The money goes not to Robert (he has a university position) but direct to the musicians via the I Fagiolini Charitable Trust, to help generate some income to make up for cancelled bookings. From Tim Gannicliffe. Musically what have I been doing in lockdown?
Well I've been practising my bass recorder with scale and studies, but you got a bit bored within the same ones all the time. So I'm trying to teach myself to play in treble clef, which is a good mental exercise and useful sometimes. I have promised myself that when we can travel I will go over to EMS at Saltaire and buy myself a great bass recorder. However not sure whether I will teach myself to play in the bass clef so might just play a tenor part.

I have been listening to some music on the radio of course- usually the Early music show. Caught some Portuguese baroque music, which was very enjoyable. I have a couple of CDs of Portuguese polyphony, which I really like. I heard some on the radio a few months ago performed by the Sixteen and bought the recording. Composers include Lobo, Magalhaes, Rebelo and Melgas. I knew of the first two composers. There was also a programme of Handel's anthems which was pleasant. I have been doing quite a bit of proof reading of spreadsheets and needed something quiet in the background. The music was varied with Tallis Motets and 18C organ music played on an 1837 church organ in Yorkshire. Composers included Boyce, Stanley, Hayes, the two Wesleys and Handel. Also a CD which I brought as a recommended disc by R3 Building a library programme. Mendelssohn's Reformation symphony played by the Heilelberger Sinfoniker. Apparently the recording uses a mixture of period and modern instruments. I heartily recommend it. Outwith all this I am busy in the garden trying to water young veg and pots in the very dry spell. Hoping at some time we can all get together again. Tim Gannicliffe

NEWS ITEMS

NORVIS 50th has been postponed to 31st July to 7th August 2021

Tudor Polyphony and Beyond... 29 August – 5 September 2020
A choral course for 16-18 experienced singers, with Eamonn Dougan and Francis Steele. Imagine a vast oil canvas... The five Tudor monarchs – all depicted – have courteously requested the presence of all the musicians who served during their reigns. John Browne is chatting with the Mundys, Sheppard laughing with Cornysh and Tye; Byrd and Tallis are deep in conversation with Elizabeth, whilst Taverner has recruited the 4 Roberts – White, Wylkynson, Parsons and Fayrfax– to play In nomines upon the dais. Anon skulks in a recess. A breath-taking array of talent there assembled.

Eamonn and Francis want to restore this canvas, not in oils, but in sound. They will select some of the greatest works of the Tudor period – antiphons, mass movements, motets – in order to discover the manifold beauties of this complex and challenging repertoire. They rely on you to be the artists.

We are seeking experienced singers and sight-readers to take part in this week of musical and culinary excess in the South of France. The venue is La Maison Verte in Roujan, Languedoc. All food, tuition and music are included and the accommodation is onsite, comfortable and spacious. The course fee is 795 euros and non-singing guests are welcome.

Bursaries from the Joan Wess Educational Fund.

NWEMF will consider applications from students in full time education and residents of North-West England and North Wales, to help finance taking part in a non-NWEMF U.K. early music event. Priority will be given to events within the region, and according to their educational value.

Bursary amounts will normally be up to £100. Application is by letter giving the details, to Martin Steward (see Committee page 2).
