NEWSLETTER

VOLUME XLV

NUMBER 4

September 2021

From the Editor

During my first stint as editor I spent a lot of time twisting arms (if you can do that over the phone or by letter and email) to get members to contribute articles to the newsletter. This time around I am not proposing to do that quite so much, but this means that you have to come forward to fill these pages. I am sure that the regular writers of workshop reports would love a little rest now and again – give it a try yourself. Also, recommendations of CDs you have enjoyed or music you have bought and sung/played would be very welcome. Or comments and musings on radio programmes – again, last time around I frequently used this space to have a rant about something a radio 3 presenter had said about some aspect of early music. And using BBC Sounds it is possible to recommend radio programmes you have heard. Though, as some have a 30 day listening window it is only worth telling us about a programme fairly near to our publication date. I recently listened to one of the “How to play” series on Vivaldi’s Four Seasons. Normally I wouldn’t have listened to yet another Four Seasons but this was Rachel Podger with the Academy of Ancient Music and was very good.

Membership Matters

- a Welcome to our new members:- Andy Coatsworth, Jenn Stanley.
- b Resignations:- none since June.
- c We currently have 119 members, 2 of whom are Life Members.
- d By the way, when renewing your membership you do not have to fill in a form, just make the payment clearly associated with your name.
- e If any of the 32% of members who does not currently pay by standing order would like to complete a standing order mandate, which would make the administration so much easier (avoiding the need for (possibly repeated) e-mail & telephone reminders), just ask for a form (preferably by e-mail). The next easiest method of making payments is to remit by BACS to N W E M F's (note spaces) bank account using Sort code 09-01-56 & Account number 79658106, with your name as the reference. This method can be used for workshop fees as well as membership dues. The aim is to minimise the use of cheques & postage.
- f If you have not noted the password for the Members area of the web-site, just e-mail me.
- g Recompensing you for the recent lack of workshops:- if we manage to restart our workshop programme this Autumn we shall allow every member the first two workshops free.

Bob Foster (Membership Secretary (fosterrobert@ymail.com))

NWEMF PROPERTY

I have custody – if that is the right word – of the viols left to NWEMF by John Austin. The tenor was very well used by my music centre youngsters and then was hired out to one of our members. It is now back with me and available for hire. It would be great to have it used again.

Bursaries from the Joan Wess Educational Fund.

NWEMF will consider applications from students in full time education and residents of North-West England and North Wales, to help finance taking part in a non-NWEMF U.K. early music event. Priority will be given to events within the region, and according to their educational value. Bursary amounts will normally be up to £100. Application is by letter giving the details, to Martin Steward (see Committee page 2).

WORKSHOP on November 13 Stephanie Muncey-Dyer: H Praetorius/Schutz/Bianci for voices & instruments, Didsbury, St James. Exultavit cor meum

This year marks 400 years since the publication of the second book of Florilegium Portense, a collection of 150 motets for five to eight and ten voices, printed in Leipzig, 1621. Compiled by German composer and pastor Erhard Bodenschatz (1576–1636), the anthology features works of better- and lesser-known composers from Italy, Germany and the Low Countries, including in this volume Gregorio Zucchini, Hieronymus Praetorius and Caspar Vincent. Open to instrumentalists and singers, a contrasting selection of repertoire will be studied and informally performed in turn, from the unique perspective and guidance of a historical trombone specialist. Let us ‘rejoice’ in this day of collaboration and music making!

Born and raised in South Wales, Stephanie read music at King’s College, Cambridge and became the first ever principal study sackbut player at the Royal Academy of Music in London, studying historical trombone with Adam Woolf and 'modern' trombone with Dudley Bright as part of the MMus Historical Performance and Research course.

Stephanie began trombone lessons aged 7 and aged 10 became principal trombonist of the National Children’s Orchestra of Great Britain for three years. She made her concerto debut aged 13 with performances in Cardiff and in France; during this time she was also the youngest ever principal trombonist of the National Youth Wind Orchestra of Wales and lead trombonist of the National Youth Jazz Orchestra of Wales. She subsequently became a member of the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain for four years, notably playing tenor tuba in Holst's The Planets under Keith Lockhart and Strauss's Don Quixote under Yan Pascal Tortelier. She later became a member of National Youth Symphonic Brass Wales, the National Youth Orchestra of Wales and the National Youth Jazz Orchestra. Whilst still at school Stephanie worked with the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, the Welsh National Opera Brass Dectet and with acclaimed large soul–funk–ska–latin–jazz group Wonderbrass, performing at the Brecon, Lichfield, Cheltenham and Marlborough International Jazz Festivals. As an undergraduate at the University of Cambridge, Stephanie was principal trombone of the university's celebrated chamber orchestra and music societies, directed the King's College Music Society and also held a choral exhibition with King's Voices – the college's mixed-voice choir.

Stephanie then discovered the sackbut as a Dartington International Summer School 2012 bursary student under the tutelage of Emily White and David Staff. She subsequently continued her studies privately with Emily and with Adam Woolf before being awarded a place to study at the Academy in September 2013. Alongside her frequent work as a period instrumentalist with such pre-eminent Early music ensembles as His Majestys Sagbutts & Cornetts, the QuintEssential Sackbut and Cornett Ensemble and the London Handel Orchestra, Stephanie enjoys a performing career encompassing classical and contemporary music across the UK and internationally. A highly versatile musician, recent engagements have ranged from a UK tour of contemporary composer Charlie Barber's The Fall of the House of Usher (Sound Affairs), twenty trombone/sackbut recitals for the acclaimed classical concert series for babies and toddlers 'Bach to Baby', to Musical Directing the 2014 Christmas show 'Follow the Super Star'.
